

~~SECRET~~ INTERNAL USE ONLY

JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Monday - 18 December 1978

✓
1. (Unclassified - PLC) LIAISON Hilda Schrieber, Retirement Expert at OMB, called to alert us that the State Department has submitted a proposed bill to amend the Foreign Service Retirement Act to allow survivorship benefits for a divorced spouse of an annuitant who has remarried. Schrieber noted that OMB and the Civil Service Commission are in strong opposition. She is sending us a copy for information only but said that the Agency could submit formal comments should we so wish.

2. (Internal Use Only - MDC) LEGISLATION [redacted] NSA.

STAT
STAT
[redacted] OLC, met today with [redacted] purpose in visiting the Legislation Staff, or OLC, was to learn of the ways and means whereby this Office identifies, tracks and eventually acts upon proposed legislation which is of Agency or Intelligence Community interest. We explained, in a nuts and bolts manner, the tools which we utilize in tracking the several bills which cross our path each session. [redacted] explained that he was dissatisfied with the current NSA methodology adding that our description of this Office's system was helpful and that he intended to institute some of our current practices at NSA.

3. (Unclassified - MG) LIAISON Received a call from Theresa Furey, Congressional Record Index Office, who requested two copies of "Chiefs of State and Cabinet Members of Foreign Governments." I told her I would forward them in a few days.

4. (Unclassified - MG) LIAISON Received a call from Susan Littleton, Senate Banking, Housing and Urban Affairs Committee staff, who requested 15 copies of "Soviet Civil Defense." I told her I would forward the copies to her.

5. (Unclassified - MG) LIAISON Called Carrie Laird, in the Jackson District office of Representative Thad Cochran (R., Miss.), and told her that [redacted] would be hearing from our Office of Personnel within two weeks concerning his employment application with the Agency.

STAT
STAT

STAT